Postgraduate scholarships

Swiss Government Excellence Scholarships

Through the Swiss Federal Commission for Scholarships for Foreign Students (FCS), the Swiss Government grants foreign researchers postgraduate scholarships at Swiss higher education institutions (Universities, Federal Institutes of Technology and Universities of Applied Sciences, Fine Arts and Music Schools).

These scholarships are offered on the basis of reciprocity (fixed number of scholarships for some selected countries) or within the framework of a regional pool (scholarships without a fixed distribution per country).

The Swiss Government Excellence Scholarships are intended for highly motivated, competitive young researchers who have graduated from university (postgraduates). These scholarships will enable applicants to undertake research work in the fields in which the Swiss universities are particularly active.

Read the FCS webpage

Each country has a specific offer of scholarships. Please go to the FCS webpage in order to see which type of scholarship is offered to your country of origin.

Click FCS website: www.sbf.admin.ch/scholarships_ENG

Submit in your country of origin

The applications have to be submitted for a preliminary selection to the national institution in charge and/or to the Swiss diplomatic representation in the applicant's country of origin. The Swiss diplomatic representation will then forward the pre-selected applications to the FCS for final selection.

Preconditions

Research interest

Research proposal

Applicants must have a clear research goal. Research scholarship, Post-doctoral scholarship as well as PhD scholarship candidates have to submit a complete research proposal (max. 5 pages), using exclusively the official research proposal form provided with the application package.

Host professor

Academic supervisor

To have an eligible application package, the applicant wishing to undertake a research scholarship, a PhD scholarship or a Post-doctoral scholarship must find a professor in Switzerland willing to supervise their research project. A letter of invitation must imperatively be part of the application package.

Failure to have a supervisor will result in the rejection of the application by the relevant national institution in the host country or by the Swiss diplomatic representation.

Two separate procedures for PhD scholarship applications

For PhD applicants only – Please note!

The FCS application for a PhD scholarship and the application for admission by a Swiss university for a PhD study are two separate procedures. The admission to a PhD study at your chosen Swiss university is a conditio sine qua non for a potential attribution of a FCS scholarship – but not guarantee though for a positive decision by the Federal Commission for Scholarships FCS. Finding your supervisor

Where to find

A prerequisite for the application

All Swiss Government Excellence Scholarships are supervised by a professor, usually listed in the database of "swissuniversities" www.proff.ch.

The first step in the application process for the scholarship candidate is to find a professor at a Swiss academic institution willing to act as their academic supervisor.

The FCS encourages candidates to find their supervisor on their own. There is no specific support offered in this bottom-up matching process.

An application without a host professor is not complete and will therefore be rejected.

Good to know

Understanding the role of academic supervisors

Professors reported to the FCS that they are frequently contacted by scholarship applicants asking for support. Therefore the FCS secretariat issued a leaflet explaining the role of an academic supervisor for a Swiss Government Excellence Scholarship holder.

The FCS recommends to potential academic supervisors to support 1 - 2 applicants per year.

You find the leaflet "Will you be my supervisor?" enclosed in your application package. Feel free to use it when contacting your potential supervisor.

Exclusion criteria

Invalid applications

Your dossier will not be taken into consideration if it is in one of the following situations:

Non eligible

- The applicant does not fulfill the eligibility criteria stated on the FCS website and in these application guidelines.

Missing documents

- The application does not include an invitation letter (or e-mail) from a Professor in Switzerland willing to supervise the research in one of the Swiss academic institutions.

Already in CH

- Applicants who are in Switzerland for more than 12 months at the beginning of the scholarship.

Bad presentation

- The application is incomplete, does not respect the guidelines, does not include the proper FCS forms, is not submitted threefoldly in the correct order or is badly prepared.

Non specific

- Applications for 2 or more universities.

Rerun

- Applicants who have already benefited from a Swiss Government Excellence Scholarship are not eligible for a second scholarship.

Careful preparation is worthwhile

Swiss Government Excellence Scholarships for Foreign Scholars and Artists

«Will you be my supervisor?»

You are a professor at a Swiss academic institution. Foreign students and postgraduate researchers contact you to ask if you will act as their academic supervisor and host professor. The following information may be useful before you reply to such a request.

- The Federal Commission for Scholarships for Foreign Students FCS (abbreviated as ESKAS in German and CFBE in French) sincerely thanks all potential academic supervisors for attentively choosing their candidates for a Swiss Government Excellence Scholarship and for giving them careful support.

Scholarship applicants are looking for host professors

- All Swiss Government Excellence Scholarships are supervised by a professor, usually listed in the database of “swissuniversities” www.proff.ch. The first step in the application process for the scholarship candidate is to find a professor at a Swiss academic institution willing to act as their supervisor.
- The FCS encourages candidates to find their supervisor on their own. There is no specific support offered in this bottom-up matching process.
- The supervisor evaluates the academic suitability of a candidate and must endorse the research proposal (including the time-frame), which is a central component of the application.
- The applicant has to reach an agreement with the supervisor. The letter from the professor stating that they are willing to supervise the PhD thesis or the (post-doctoral) research is a mandatory element of each application for a Swiss Government Excellence Scholarship.
- An application without a host professor is not complete and will therefore be rejected.
- The decision to act as academic supervisor or not is entirely up to you of course.

The academic supervisor:

A success factor and a role with responsibilities

- If you agree to act as host professor, you agree to supervise the scholarship holder during their whole research stay (12 months for research fellows and post-docs or up to 36 months for PhD students).
- During the scholarship holder’s stay in Switzerland, the Confederation together with the international relations office at your university and you as academic supervisor are responsible for them.
- As host professor you agree to integrate the grantee into your team and provide good research conditions (lab space and access to infrastructure). With the consent of the FCS, a supplementary salary to the scholarship grant is possible up to a certain level. Field research is possible under certain conditions and with co-financing. No co-financing though for attending conferences.
- Major selection criteria are the quality of supervision and the potential for future academic cooperation as well as the candidate’s academic profile, their research capacity, and the originality and methodological soundness of the research proposal. The FCS recommends that you support 1 or 2 applicants per year only.
- The Swiss Government Excellence Scholarships are prestigious and highly competitive. The expected success rate is around 15 to 20 percent.
- A letter of sufficient scope from the host professor should describe the research proposal, the relation to the candidate and possible future collaboration. A short CV from the host professor should be enclosed.
- Your thoughtfully drawn-up host letter could be the decisive element in the scholarship application.

Application procedure

- Yearly release of the call in August. Preparation of application and submission in autumn. Peer reviews of applications during winter. Selection and announcement of decision in spring. Swiss Government Excellence Scholarships run from 1 September each year.
