

Seconded National Expert (SNE) at the General Secretariat of the Council of the European Union

DG D, Directorate 1 - Home Affairs

Ref.: END/9/2017 (3233)

Job description

A. Tasks

Under the direct authority of the Head of Unit for Police and Customs Cooperation (DG D 1C), working closely with Council officials of that unit, the expert will perform the following tasks:

- Advise and assist the Presidency in the development and implementation of the Council's counter-terrorism (CT) policies, including providing support to the Terrorism Working Party.
- Identify areas for further CT cooperation, inter alia by keeping up to date with a broad range of issues related to terrorism. Maintain an overview of activities relevant to terrorism in the context of files under discussion in all Council bodies and working parties, as well as of relevant developments at the Commission, the European External Action Service and the European Parliament.
- Draft policy papers for the Presidency on various aspects of CT policies.
- Follow the work of the EP special committee on terrorism.
- Provide briefings and advice to the Presidency of the Council, the President of the European Council and senior management.
- Participate in various meetings organised by EU bodies or other parties.
- Engage in coordination between various stakeholders within the Council, including with the office of the Counter-Terrorism Coordinator, on CT related issues.
- Engage in coordination with other EU institutions, agencies and bodies active in the area of CT.
- Liaise and coordinate closely with EU institutions and agencies, Member States, third countries, international organisations and think tanks.

B. Qualifications and experience required

- A level of education which corresponds to completed university studies of at least three years attested to by a diploma, or equivalent vocational training attested to by a diploma or a certificate issued by an institute for advanced studies in a relevant field or by an institute such as a police academy or a military academy, or a law degree or practical experience in a Ministry of the Interior or of Justice.
- Professional experience of at least five years related to CT/internal security matters, preferably in a CT policy area.
- Knowledge/experience of the EU institutions, in particular in the field of justice and home affairs, would be an asset.
- A thorough knowledge of one official language of the European Union¹ and a satisfactory knowledge of a second language are required for the performance of these duties. In practice, in the interests of the service, as drafting and editing skills are especially needed, a thorough oral and written command of English is required.

* V. NOTA IN FONDO AL BANDO

C. Skills and abilities required

- Excellent drafting and communication skills.
- Ability to work effectively in a team.
- Good organisational skills and ability to manage a heavy workload.
- Being able to handle files proactively, continuously and autonomously with the relevant actors, showing a strong sense of initiative.
- Flexibility and the adaptability required to work in a multinational environment.
- Discretion.

D. Security clearance

- National security clearance at EU SECRET level. Such clearance must be obtained by the candidate from his/her competent authorities before secondment to the General Secretariat of the Council. The validity of the clearance should cover the entire period of the secondment. In the absence thereof, the General Secretariat reserves the right to refuse the candidate's secondment as a national expert.

E. General conditions

- Be a national of one of the Member States of the European Union national of one of the Member States of the European Union and enjoy full rights as a citizen.
- Have fulfilled any obligations imposed by the laws of that Member State concerning military service.

The General Secretariat of the Council applies an equal opportunities policy.
