Brussels, 29 July 2013
FPI/GT/AH D(2013)

NOTE TO THE MEMBER STATES

CALL FOR CANDIDATURES FOR LONG TERM AND SHORT TERM OBSERVERS
FOR AN ELECTION OBSERVATION MISSION (EU EOM)
HONDURAS – GENERAL ELECTIONS
24 NOVEMBER 2013

Acting upon the decision of the High Representative of the Union for Foreign Affairs & Security Policy/Vice-President of the European Commission to deploy a European Union Election Observation Mission (EU EOM) to Honduras, and without pre-judging the final format of the mission, the European Commission wishes to initiate the selection procedure for the Long and Short Term Observers for the EU EOM to observe the forthcoming General Elections scheduled to take place on 24 November 2013.

The European Commission wishes to begin the procedures for recruitment of:

1. MAX. 22 LTOs (LONG TERM OBSERVERS). INDICATIVE AVAILABILITY DATES:
   - The pre-deployment training and Core Team briefing for LTOs is tentatively scheduled on 14-16 October 2013 in Tegucigalpa.
   - Tentative deployment dates in country:
     - from 13 October to 04 December 2013

2. MAX. 40 STOs (SHORT TERM OBSERVERS). INDICATIVE AVAILABILITY DATES:
   - The pre-deployment training and Core Team briefing for STOs is tentatively scheduled on 16-18 November 2013 in Tegucigalpa.
   - Tentative deployment dates in country:
     - from 15 to 29 November 2013

More information on the exact dates of the training session as well as final decision on the exact dates of deployment will be communicated to selected observers at a later stage.

In order to ensure the recruitment of the observers, the European Commission invites the Member States to submit candidates’ names via the ROSTER only, at the latest by 25 August 2013 (at midnight Brussels time).

- Up to 3 candidates for the position of Long Term Observers (LTOs)

European Commission, B-1049 Bruxelles - Belgium. Telephone: (32-2) 299 11 11
- Up to 3 candidates for the position of Short Term Observers (STOs)

Member States should ensure a fair balance regarding the gender and the professional background of shortlisted candidates.

3. Candidate Profile

Applicants’ references and professional experience might be checked and language proficiency in Spanish and English tested through phone interviews by European Commission officials during the selection process.

1. Language proficiency: very good\(^1\) written and spoken proficiency in Spanish (working language) and English (reporting language) is a must.

2. Previous experience in Honduras and/or in the region is an asset.

3. Previous electoral observation experience and/or other relevant experience including electoral training, technical assistance or experience in the region in relevant fields:
   - LTOs: minimum two (2) observation missions as an observer or core team member (this may include EOMs organised by other organisations).
   - STOs: minimum one (1) observation mission as an observer or core team member (this may include EOMs organised by other organisations) or relevant electoral training (preferably by NEEDS/EODS) or relevant previous work experience.

   A limited number of STO positions can be reserved for newcomers with relevant skills.

4. Previous experience of work as a civilian in a large scale international mission or in a human rights monitoring mission is an asset.

5. Demonstrated commitment to democracy and human rights.

6. Computer and IT (Microsoft Office Word, Excel, Access, Acrobat writer, Outlook) and internet browser and web mail software. Familiarity with use of Satellite phones, GPS, BGAN.

7. Excellent physical conditions and good health, which can afford long working hours and potential demanding physical efforts. Candidates should consult their government's health advisories. Selected observers will be requested to present a fit-to-work certificate prior to their deployment to Honduras.

8. Living conditions: observers should be willing to accept harsh living conditions when deployed in Honduras, including basic accommodation and long driving hours under poor road conditions.

9. Full flexibility is required from the candidates in terms of mission timetable in case changes and delays might occur.

\(^1\) C1 according to the Council of Europe languages levels available at: http://europass.cedefop.europa.eu/en/resources/european-language-levels-cedefop
4. Selection of Successful Candidates and Information to be Provided to Shortlisted Observers

1. The Commission will proceed with the selection of the observers in the framework of the criteria outlined in the European Union Council Decision “EU Guides for the Selection of the electoral observers” Council Decision 8728/99 - PESC 165 - COHOM 4 and will inform the Member States of the final list of the selected observers.

| Tentative date by which the Commission hopes to inform MS and selected/non-selected LTO | 30 August 2013 |
| Tentative date by which the Commission hopes to inform MS and selected/non-selected STO | 30 August 2012 |

2. Previous evaluations during EU EOMs and NEEDS/EODS training sessions will also be taken into account.

5. The Commission Invites the Member States:

- to only propose candidates certifying their full availability for the entire period of the mission;
- to ensure an appropriate balance between the observers’ past professional experiences (various types of public or civilian background);
- to inform pre-selected observers to update their personal data in the ROSTER before the submission of their candidatures. For the entire selection process and the preparations for fielding, the Commission will only take into consideration the data as entered in the CV in the Roster (departure airport, passport data, e-mail addresses, telephone numbers, etc.). Should a CV not include all the required information, the applicant will be rejected. Further communication by the candidate or (like for example new departure airport, changed e-mail, etc.) shall not be taken into consideration.
- to rank in each category all shortlisted observers by order of suggested preference;
- to inform the observers of the information and terms of reference detailed in the annex to the present Note (in particular regarding deployment dates, per diem, compensatory allowance and hazard pay if applicable);
- to inform the observers that Spanish and English proficiency is mandatory (no interpreters will be provided to observers) and that it might be tested through phone interviews by European Commission officials during the selection process.
- to inform the observers to follow respectfully and at any time during their assignment as observers the EU code of conduct for election observer as well as the European Commission and EU EOM Core Team and Service Provider instructions, in particular security and safety instructions, upon deployment and throughout the mission.
- to inform observers that due to security and reputational risks, observers are strongly discouraged from staying in the country, for personal reasons, outside their deployment period. Service Providers are instructed not to modify mission travel tickets.

Failure to follow the code of conduct (attached) and instructions may result in an anticipated termination of the observer's assignment, immediate repatriation to the place of residence and non-recommendation for future EU EOMs.
• to inform observers of the security instructions and health precautions and requirements as published on the websites of their respective Ministries and Embassies. More information on health precautions and requirements will be communicated by the service provider to selected candidates at a later stage.

Georgios Tsitsopoulos
Head of Sector
Election Observation

Annex:
- Observers' recruitment Information and terms of reference

CC: Mr. Margue, Mr. Nette, Mr. Tsitsopoulos, Mr. Huidobro, Ms Pinheiro (FPI)
Mr. Giaufret, Mr. Salvia (EEAS)