PARTNERSHIP FORUM

THE RULE OF LAW IN TURBULENT TIMES

---

15:00 – 16:15 Opening Session: Setting the Scene

International norms on human rights and the rule of law are under extraordinary pressure from entrenched conflicts, rising authoritarianism, climate change, humanitarian crises and growing inequalities. Speakers' contributions will address both challenges and opportunities to unlock the transformative potential of the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) to help build peaceful, just and inclusive societies.

The session will explore ways to build momentum for advancing the rule of law and access to justice in light of the first quadrennial assessment of progress in implementing the Sustainable Development Goals in September 2019, the United Nations High-Level Political Forum (HLPF) in 2019 and the work of the Taskforce on Justice.

- 1. Opening remarks
Irene Khan
Director-General, IDLO
- 2. Special address
H.E. Inga Rhonda King

Jean Marie Guéhenno
Former President and CEO
International Crisis Group and UN
Under-Secretary-General for Peace Keeping Operations

Discussion moderated by Irene Khan, Director-General, IDLO

16:15 – 16:45 Coffee break

16:45 – 18:30 Session 1: Building Trust and Confidence in Institutions

The session will examine different approaches to strengthen the capacity, integrity and accountability of institutions through interventions to promote judicial independence, combat corruption and make governance more open, transparent and efficient. It will also address the importance of building public trust in institutions by increasing their responsiveness and cooperation with those they serve, including through direct engagement with justice seekers, working with civil society and bridging the gap between formal and informal justice systems.
