

EEAS Vacancy Notice

Cost-free Seconded National Expert

European Economic and Trade Office (Taiwan)

AD level post

Job No 400231

We are:

The European External Action Service (EEAS) supports the High Representative in the exercise of his mandate to conduct and implement an effective and coherent EU Common Foreign and Security Policy (CFSP), of representing the EU and of chairing the Foreign Affairs Council. It also supports the High Representative in his capacity as Vice-President of the Commission with regard to his responsibilities within the Commission in the external relations field including the coordination of other aspects of the EU's external action. The EEAS works in close cooperation with the General Secretariat of the Council, the services of the Commission and the Secretariat General of the European Parliament.

We propose:

The position of Seconded National Expert (SNE) covering Security Issues at the European Economic and Trade Office in Taiwan (EETO) as a "cost-free" secondment, i.e. salary, insurances, schooling and other costs to be paid by the EU MS as appropriate.

The selected SNE will assist the EETO in monitoring political and security developments in Taiwan and the region. S/he will help establish and maintain EU relations with local counterparts working on security, military, intelligence, human rights, disinformation, cybersecurity and cross-strait relations. Under the direct supervision of the Head of the Political Press and Information Section, and the general guidance of the Head of Office, the selected SNE will contribute to analysis and reporting, focusing on regional political and security issues, regional developments affecting the stability of the Taiwan Strait, and other issues of interest for the EU. S/he will be based in Taipei.

We are looking for:

The European External Action Service (EEAS) is seeking a highly motivated colleague to occupy the post of Seconded National Expert (SNE) at the European Economic and Trade Office in Taiwan (EETO). The expert will assist/contribute, among others:

- To follow the political and security situation in Taiwan, China and the region;
- To develop and maintain a network of Taiwan-based interlocutors working on security, military, intelligence, human rights, disinformation and cross-strait relations;
- To act as the EETO's focal point on security/military matters, representing the Office when needed and liaising with Member States and like-minded partners that have a security/intelligence presence in Taiwan;
- To analyse and report on regional political and security developments, with a particular focus on cross-strait issues, conflict prevention, military cooperation, hybrid warfare, grey-zone tactics, cybersecurity and intelligence analysis;
- To prepare regular and timely reports on the abovementioned topics, including early warnings, specific requests, info flashes, "think pieces", etc.;
- To promote and raise awareness among local interlocutors on EU policies, strategies and initiatives;
- To contribute to the preparation and participate to EU-Taiwan dialogues;
- To advise on EU policies; and
- To contribute to other tasks of the Political, Press and Information Section and the Office, as needed.

Legal basis:

- This vacancy is to be filled in accordance with EEAS Decision of the High Representative of the Union for Foreign Affairs and Security Policy HR DEC (2014)01 of 04/02/2014 establishing the rules applicable to National Experts seconded to the European External Action Service.

Eligibility criteria:

Candidates must:

- a) Be drawn from public administrations in Member States, from international organisations or, only in exceptional cases and with prior authorisation from other sources;
- b) Have at least three years' full-time experience of administrative, scientific, technical, advisory or supervisory functions equivalent to those of function groups AD or AST as defined in the Staff Regulations of Officials of the European Union and the Conditions of Employment of other servants of the Union<sup>1</sup> or, where justified in the interests of the service, professional training of an equivalent level.
- c) Have a thorough knowledge of one Union language and a satisfactory knowledge of a second language for the performance of his/her duties.
- d) Have a security clearance of minimum level EU-SECRET for the functions that s/he will carry out.
- e) Remain in the service of the employer throughout the period of secondment and shall be paid by that employer.
- f) Remain subject to the social security legislation applicable to the public administration, international administration or entity which employs the SNE and which will assume responsibility for expenses incurred abroad. In case of posting to an EU Delegation, the employer certifies that the SNE is covered for medical expenses incurred at the place of secondment, as well as costs of repatriation on health grounds throughout the full period of secondment.
- g) Ensure that there is no conflict of interest and that they will, at all times, safeguard the independence and coherence of EU foreign policy as well as the integrity and confidentiality of EU documentation, information and procedures.
