

EEAS Vacancy Notice

Seconded National Expert in the Civilian Planning and Conduct Capability (MD.CPCC)

Rule of Law/Criminal Justice Expert (DMD.CPCC.1)

COST-FREE

AD level post

Job No. 431017

We are:

The European External Action Service (EEAS) supports the High Representative for Foreign Affairs and Security Policy in the exercise of his mandate to conduct and implement an effective and coherent EU Common Foreign and Security Policy (CFSP), in representing the EU and in chairing the Foreign Affairs Council. It also supports the High Representative in his capacity as Vice-President of the Commission with regard to his responsibilities within the Commission in the external relations field including the coordination of other aspects of the EU's external action. The EEAS works in close cooperation with the General Secretariat of the Council, the services of the Commission and the Secretariat General of the European Parliament.

The Civilian Planning and Conduct Capability (MD.CPCC) is the permanent structure supporting the Civilian Operations Commander. The Civilian Operations Commander is the overall commander at the strategic level of currently 12 civilian CSDP crisis management missions and provides strategic guidance and direction to the Heads of Mission. The Civilian Operations Commander reports directly to the High Representative and through him to the Council of the EU. Under the political control and strategic direction of the Political and Security Committee and the overall authority of the High Representative, the Civilian Operations Commander ensures the effective planning and conduct of civilian CSDP crisis management operations, as well as the proper implementation of all mission-related tasks as well as the discharge of the duty of care.

We propose:

The post of a "cost-free" Seconded National Expert (SNE) for the position of Rule of Law/Criminal Justice Expert. The successful candidate will join the Horizontal Affairs section of the aforementioned division, which is staffed with thematic experts in different fields of work related to the implementation of civilian CSDP missions' mandates.

Functions and Duties:

- Support the operational planning and conduct of civilian CSDP missions, to provide advice on Rule of Law/Criminal Justice notably specific input to drafting of CONOPS and OPLAN including for new missions and revisions of operational planning documents.
- Develop standards and best practice for civilian CSDP missions, notably in the field of Rule of Law/Criminal Justice and act as one of the CPCC focal points in this domain.
- Coordinate the network of mission Rule of Law advisors as well as the organization of their annual meeting as one of the CPCC focal points.
- Provide advice on Rule of Law related issues and prepare analytical notes, reports, briefing notes, speeches for CPCC and EEAS management.
- Prepare and take part in related discussions in Council working parties and committees, notably the Committee for Civilian Aspects of Crisis Management, the Political and Security Committee, Coreper and the Council.
- Maintain contacts with relevant services within the EEAS, including SECDEFPOL, ISP, the EU

Military Staff as well as the EEAS Legal Division and the European Commission.

- Maintain contact with representatives of Member States and contributing Third States.
- Maintain contact with relevant international stakeholders (such as the UN, OSCE, African Union, Council of Europe and any other international organisations and Third States).
- Contribute with subject matter expertise and advice to the operational planning, conduct, review/refocusing and assessment of civilian CSDP missions.
- Contribute to related lessons learned processes.
- Contribute to the selection of mission personnel.
- Prepare and participate in meetings with internal and external stakeholders and provide information on CSDP policies and best practice.
- Contribute to strategic communications as well as to civilian CSDP training as a lecturer on areas of responsibility and competence.
- Contribute to horizontal discussions related to the further development of CSDP policy and related tools.
- Carry out any other tasks assigned by line management.

We are looking for:
