

EEAS Vacancy Notice

Seconded National Expert in the Directorate for Strategic Communication and Foresight (SG.STRAT)

Policy Officer, Information Integrity and Countering Foreign Information Manipulation and Interference Division (SG.STRAT.4)

COST-FREE

AD level post

Job No job 447483

We are:

The European External Action Service (EEAS) supports the High Representative in the exercise of his mandate to conduct and implement an effective and coherent EU Common Foreign and Security Policy (CFSP), of representing the EU and of chairing the Foreign Affairs Council. It also supports the High Representative in his capacity as Vice-President of the Commission with regard to his responsibilities within the Commission in the external relations field including the coordination of other aspects of the EU's external action. The EEAS works in close cooperation with the General Secretariat of the Council, the services of the Commission and the Secretariat General of the European Parliament.

We propose:

The post of a “cost-free” Seconded National Expert for the position of “Policy Officer”.

The successful candidate will join the Information Integrity and Countering Foreign Information Manipulation and Interference Division (SG.STRAT.4) and will be placed within the Russia threat actors and response team. S/he will contribute to the work of the East StratCom Task Force (ESTF) and its flagship project, EUvsDisinfo. The Division and the ESTF play a leading role in advancing information integrity and addressing foreign information manipulation and interference (FIMI) in the Eastern Neighbourhood countries and beyond, including by raising awareness, building resilience and supporting governments, civil society partners and media in their efforts to tackle these challenges.

We are looking for:

The European External Action Service (EEAS) is seeking a dynamic, proactive and highly motivated colleague with strong analytical, project management and networking skills to occupy the post of Seconded National Expert (SNE) with SG.STRAT.4.

The expert will support overall EU efforts to counter foreign information manipulation and interference, strengthen international cooperation and engagement, and contribute to strategy development and initiatives towards this aim, with a particular focus on Eastern Neighborhood countries and Russia as a FIMI threat actor. The expert will be required to work closely with relevant policy divisions of the EEAS, EU MS representatives, EU Delegations in the priority regions, European Commission services and Representations in the Member States, Spokespersons Service, EP press team, external contractors as well as the expert community and other relevant networks.

Legal basis:

- This vacancy is to be filled in accordance with the EEAS Decision of the High Representative of the Union for Foreign Affairs and Security Policy HR DEC(2014) 01 of 04/02/2014 establishing the rules applicable to National Experts seconded to the European External Action Service.

Eligibility criteria:

Candidates must:

- a) Be drawn from public administrations in Member States, from international organisations or, only in exceptional cases and with prior authorisation from other sources;
- b) Have at least three years' full-time experience of administrative, scientific, technical, advisory or supervisory functions equivalent to those of function groups AD or AST as defined in the Staff Regulations of Officials of the European Union and the Conditions of Employment of other servants of the Union or, where justified in the interests of the service, professional training of an equivalent level.¹;
- c) Have a thorough knowledge of one Union language and a satisfactory knowledge of a second language for the performance of his/her duties;
- d) Have a security clearance of minimum level EU-SECRET/SECRET-UE for the functions that he/she will carry out;
- e) Remain in the service of the employer throughout the period of secondment and shall be paid by that employer;
- f) Remain subject to the social security legislation applicable to the public administration, international administration or entity which employs the SNE and which will assume responsibility for expenses incurred abroad. In case of posting to an EU Delegation, the employer certifies that the SNE is covered for medical expenses incurred at the place of secondment, as well as costs of repatriation on health grounds throughout the full period of secondment;
- g) Ensure that there is no conflict of interest and that he/she will, at all times, safeguard the independence and coherence of EU foreign policy as well as the integrity and confidentiality of EU documentation, information and procedures.

Selection criteria:

Candidates should:
